ABA MODEL CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT
FEBRUARY 2007

PREAMBLE

[1] An independent, fair and impartial judiciary is indispensable to our system of justice. The United States legal system is based upon the principle that an independent, impartial, and competent judiciary, composed of men and women of integrity, will interpret and apply the law that governs our society. Thus, the judiciary plays a central role in preserving the principles of justice and the rule of law. Inherent in all the Rules contained in this Code are the precepts that judges, individually and collectively, must respect and honor the judicial office as a public trust and strive to maintain and enhance confidence in the legal system.

[2] Judges should maintain the dignity of judicial office at all times, and avoid both impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in their professional and personal lives. They should aspire at all times to conduct that ensures the greatest possible public confidence in their independence, impartiality, integrity, and competence.

[3] The Model Code of Judicial Conduct establishes standards for the ethical conduct of judges and judicial candidates. It is not intended as an exhaustive guide for the conduct of judges and judicial candidates, who are governed in their judicial and personal conduct by general ethical standards as well as by the Code. The Code is intended, however, to provide guidance and assist judges in maintaining the highest standards of judicial and personal conduct, and to provide a basis for regulating their conduct through disciplinary agencies.

2
3 [1] The Model Code of Judicial Conduct consists of four Canons, numbered Rules
4 under each Canon, and Comments that generally follow and explain each Rule. Scope
5 and Terminology sections provide additional guidance in interpreting and applying the 6 Code. An Application section establishes when the various Rules apply to a judge or 7 judicial candidate.

8
9 [2] The Canons state overarching principles of judicial ethics that all judges must 10 observe. Although a judge may be disciplined only for violating a Rule, the Canons
11 provide important guidance in interpreting the Rules. Where a Rule contains a permissive 12 term, such as “may” or “should,” the conduct being addressed is committed to the 13 personal and professional discretion of the judge or candidate in question, and no 14 disciplinary action should be taken for action or inaction within the bounds of such 15 discretion.

17 [3] The Comments that accompany the Rules serve two functions. First, they provide 18 guidance regarding the purpose, meaning, and proper application of the Rules. They 19 contain explanatory material and, in some instances, provide examples of permitted or 20 prohibited conduct. Comments neither add to nor subtract from the binding obligations
21 set forth in the Rules. Therefore, when a Comment contains the term “must,” it does not 22 mean that the Comment itself is binding or enforceable; it signifies that the Rule in 23 question, properly understood, is obligatory as to the conduct at issue.

25 [4] Second, the Comments identify aspirational goals for judges. To implement fully 26 the principles of this Code as articulated in the Canons, judges should strive to exceed the 27 standards of conduct established by the Rules, holding themselves to the highest ethical 28 standards and seeking to achieve those aspirational goals, thereby enhancing the dignity
29 of the judicial office.

30
31 [5] The Rules of the Model Code of Judicial Conduct are rules of reason that should 32 be applied consistent with constitutional requirements, statutes, other court rules, and 33 decisional law, and with due regard for all relevant circumstances. The Rules should not 34 be interpreted to impinge upon the essential independence of judges in making judicial 35 decisions.

37 [6] Although the black letter of the Rules is binding and enforceable, it is not 38 contemplated that every transgression will result in the imposition of discipline. Whether 39 discipline should be imposed should be determined through a reasonable and reasoned
40 application of the Rules, and should depend upon factors such as the seriousness of the 41 transgression, the facts and circumstances that existed at the time of the transgression, the 42 extent of any pattern of improper activity, whether there have been previous violations, 43 and the effect of the improper activity upon the judicial system or others.

45 [7] The Code is not designed or intended as a basis for civil or criminal liability.
46 Neither is it intended to be the basis for litigants to seek collateral remedies against each
47 other or to obtain tactical advantages in proceedings before a court.

TERMINOLOGY

See Rules 2.11 and 4.4.

“Appropriate authority” means the authority having responsibility for initiation of disciplinary process in connection with the violation to be reported. See Rules 2.14 and 2.15.

“Contribution” means both financial and in-kind contributions, such as goods, professional or volunteer services, advertising, and other types of assistance, which, if obtained by the recipient otherwise, would require a financial expenditure. See Rules 2.11, 2.13, 3.7, 4.1, and 4.4.

“De minimis,” in the context of interests pertaining to disqualification of a judge, means an insignificant interest that could not raise a reasonable question regarding the judge’s impartiality. See Rule 2.11.

“Domestic partner” means a person with whom another person maintains a household and an intimate relationship, other than a person to whom he or she is legally married. See Rules 2.11, 2.13, 3.13, and 3.14.

“Economic interest” means ownership of more than a de minimis legal or equitable interest. Except for situations in which the judge participates in the management of such a legal or equitable interest, or the interest could be substantially affected by the outcome of a proceeding before a judge, it does not include:

- (1) an interest in the individual holdings within a mutual or common investment fund;
- (2) an interest in securities held by an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization in which the judge or the judge’s spouse, domestic partner, parent, or child serves as a director, an officer, an advisor, or other participant;
- (3) a deposit in a financial institution or deposits or proprietary interests the judge may maintain as a member of a mutual savings association or credit union, or similar proprietary interests; or 13 Code, and conduct that undermines a judge’s independence, integrity, or impartiality. See 14 Canon 1 and Rule 1.2.

16 “Independence” means a judge’s freedom from influence or controls other than those

21
22 “Judicial candidate” means any person, including a sitting judge, who is seeking 23 selection for or retention in judicial office by election or appointment. A person becomes 24 a candidate for judicial office as soon as he or she makes a public announcement of 25 candidacy, declares or files as a candidate with the election or appointment authority, 26 authorizes or, where permitted, engages in solicitation or acceptance of contributions or 27 support, or is nominated for election or appointment to office. See Rules 2.11, 4.1, 4.2,

APPLICATION

The Application section establishes when the various Rules apply to a judge or judicial candidate.

I. APPLICABILITY OF THIS CODE

(A) The provisions of the Code apply to all full-time judges. Parts II through V of this section identify those provisions that apply to four distinct categories of part-time judges. The four categories of judicial service in other than a full-time capacity are necessarily defined in general terms because of the widely varying forms of judicial service. Canon 4 applies to judicial candidates.

(B) A judge, within the meaning of this Code, is anyone who is authorized to perform judicial functions, including an officer such as a justice of the peace, magistrate, court commissioner, special master, referee, or member of the administrative law judiciary.¹

COMMENT

[1] The Rules in this Code have been formulated to address the ethical obligations of any person who serves a judicial function, and are premised upon the supposition that a uniform system of ethical principles should apply to all those authorized to perform judicial functions.

[2] The determination of which category and, accordingly, which specific Rules apply to an individual judicial officer, depends upon the facts of the particular judicial service.

[3] In recent years many jurisdictions have created what are often called “problem solving” courts, in which judges are authorized by court rules to act in nontraditional ways. For example, judges presiding in drug courts and monitoring the progress of participants in those courts’ programs may be authorized and even encouraged to communicate directly with social workers, probation officers, and others outside the context of their usual judicial role as independent decision makers on issues of fact and law. When local rules specifically authorize conduct not otherwise permitted under these Rules, they take precedence over the provisions set forth in the Code. Nevertheless, judges serving on “problem solving” courts shall comply with this Code except to the extent local rules provide and permit otherwise.

¹Each jurisdiction should consider the characteristics of particular positions within the administrative law judiciary in adopting, adapting, applying, and enforcing the Code for the administrative law judiciary. See, e.g., Model Code of Judicial Conduct for Federal Administrative Law Judges (1989) and Model Code of Judicial Conduct for State Administrative Law Judges (1995). Both Model Codes are endorsed by the ABA National Conference of the Administrative Law Judiciary.

2 II. RETIRED JUDGE SUBJECT TO RECALL
3

4 A retired judge subject to recall for service, who by law is not permitted to practice
5 law, is not required to comply:

6
7 (A) with Rule 3.9 (Service as Arbitrator or Mediator), except while 8 serving as a judge; or

9
10 (B) at any time with Rule 3.8 (Appointments to Fiduciary Positions).
11

13
14 [1] For the purposes of this section, as long as a retired judge is subject to being 15 recalled for service, the judge is considered to “perform judicial functions.”

17 III. CONTINUING PART-TIME JUDGE
18

19 A judge who serves repeatedly on a part-time basis by election or under a 20 continuing appointment, including a retired judge subject to recall who is permitted 21 to practice law (“continuing part-time judge”),

23 (A) is not required to comply:

24
25 (1) with Rules 2.10(A) and 2.10(B) (Judicial Statements on 26 Pending and Impending Cases), except while serving as a judge; or

27
28 (2) at any time with Rules 3.4 (Appointments to Governmental 29 Positions), 3.8 (Appointments to Fiduciary Positions), 3.9 (Service as 30 Arbitrator or Mediator), 3.10 (Practice of Law), 3.11 (Financial,
31 Business, or Remunerative Activities), 3.14 (Reimbursement of 32 Expenses and Waivers of Fees or Charges), 3.15 (Reporting
33 Requirements), 4.1 (Political and Campaign Activities of Judges and 34 Judicial Candidates in General), 4.2 (Political and Campaign
35 Activities of Judicial Candidates in Public Elections), 4.3 (Activities of 36 Candidates for Appointive Judicial Office), 4.4 (Campaign
37 Committees), and 4.5 (Activities of Judges Who Become Candidates 38 for Nonjudicial Office); and

40 (B) shall not practice law in the court on which the judge serves or in any
41 court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court on which the judge
42 serves, and shall not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which the judge has 43 served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

1

3
4 [1] When a person who has been a continuing part-time judge is no longer a 5 continuing part-time judge, including a retired judge no longer subject to recall, that 6 person may act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he or she has served as a judge or in 7 any other proceeding related thereto only with the informed consent of all parties, and 8 pursuant to any applicable Model Rules of Professional Conduct. An adopting 9 jurisdiction should substitute a reference to its applicable rule.
10

11 IV. PERIODIC PART-TIME JUDGE

12
13 A periodic part-time judge who serves or expects to serve repeatedly on a part-time 14 basis, but under a separate appointment for each limited period of service or for 15 each matter,

16 (A) is not required to comply:

18 (1) with Rule 2.10 (Judicial Statements on Pending and Impending 19 Cases), except while serving as a judge; or

21 (2) at any time with Rules 3.4 (Appointments to Governmental
22 Positions), 3.7 (Participation in Educational, Religious, Charitable,
23 Fraternal, or Civic Organizations and Activities), 3.8 (Appointments
24 to Fiduciary Positions), 3.9 (Service as Arbitrator or Mediator), 3.10
25 (Practice of Law), 3.11 (Financial, Business, or Remunerative
26 Activities), 3.13 (Acceptance and Reporting of Gifts, Loans, Bequests,
27 Benefits, or Other Things of Value), 3.15 (Reporting Requirements), 28 4.1 (Political and Campaign Activities of Judges and Judicial 29 Candidates in General), and 4.5 (Activities of Judges Who Become 30 Candidates for Nonjudicial Office); and

31
32 (B) shall not practice law in the court on which the judge serves or in any
33 court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court on which the judge
34 serves, and shall not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which the judge has 35 served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

37 V. PRO TEMPORE PART-TIME JUDGE

38
39 A pro tempore part-time judge who serves or expects to serve once or only 40 sporadically on a part-time basis under a separate appointment for each period of 41 service or for each case heard is not required to comply:

43 (A) except while serving as a judge, with Rules 1.2 (Promoting Confidence
44 in the Judiciary), 2.4 (External Influences on Judicial Conduct), 2.10
45 (Judicial Statements on Pending and Impending Cases), or 3.2 (Appearances

1 before Governmental Bodies and Consultation with Government Officials);
2 or

4 (B) at any time with Rules 3.4 (Appointments to Governmental Positions),
5 3.6 (Affiliation with Discriminatory Organizations), 3.7 (Participation in 6 Educational, Religious, Charitable, Fraternal, or Civic Organizations and 7 Activities), 3.8 (Appointments to Fiduciary Positions), 3.9 (Service as 8 Arbitrator or Mediator), 3.10 (Practice of Law), 3.11 (Financial, Business, or 9 Remunerative Activities), 3.13 (Acceptance and Reporting of Gifts, Loans,
10 Bequests, Benefits, or Other Things of Value), 3.15 (Reporting
11 Requirements), 4.1 (Political and Campaign Activities of Judges and Judicial 12 Candidates in General), and 4.5 (Activities of Judges Who Become 13 Candidates for Nonjudicial Office).

15 VI. TIME FOR COMPLIANCE

17 A person to whom this Code becomes applicable shall comply immediately with its 18 provisions, except that those judges to whom Rules 3.8 (Appointments to Fiduciary 19 Positions) and 3.11 (Financial, Business, or Remunerative Activities) apply shall 20 comply with those Rules as soon as reasonably possible, but in no event later than 21 one year after the Code becomes applicable to the judge.

22

24
25 [1] If serving as a fiduciary when selected as judge, a new judge may,
26 notwithstanding the prohibitions in Rule 3.8, continue to serve as fiduciary, but only for 27 that period of time necessary to avoid serious adverse consequences to the beneficiaries
28 of the fiduciary relationship and in no event longer than one year. Similarly, if engaged at 29 the time of judicial selection in a business activity, a new judge may, notwithstanding the 30 prohibitions in Rule 3.11, continue in that activity for a reasonable period but in no event
31 longer than one year.

18

21 [1] Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by improper conduct and conduct that 22 creates the appearance of impropriety. This principle applies to both the professional and 23 personal conduct of a judge.

25 [2] A judge should expect to be the subject of public scrutiny that might be viewed as 26 burdensome if applied to other citizens, and must accept the restrictions imposed by the 27 Code.

29 [3] Conduct that compromises or appears to compromise the independence, integrity, 30 and impartiality of a judge undermines public confidence in the judiciary. Because it is 31 not practicable to list all such conduct, the Rule is necessarily cast in general terms.

32

33 [4] Judges should participate in activities that promote ethical conduct among judges 34 and lawyers, support professionalism within the judiciary and the legal profession, and 35 promote access to justice for all.

37 [5] Actual improprieties include violations of law, court rules or provisions of this 38 Code. The test for appearance of impropriety is whether the conduct would create in 39 reasonable minds a perception that the judge violated this Code or engaged in other 40 conduct that reflects adversely on the judge's honesty, impartiality, temperament, or 41 fitness to serve as a judge.

43 [6] A judge should initiate and participate in community outreach activities for the 44 purpose of promoting public understanding of and confidence in the administration of 45 justice. In conducting such activities, the judge must act in a manner consistent with this 46 Code.

RULE 1.3

Avoiding Abuse of the Prestige of Judicial Office

A judge shall not abuse the prestige of judicial office to advance the personal or economic interests* of the judge or others, or allow others to do so.

COMMENT

[1] It is improper for a judge to use or attempt to use his or her position to gain personal advantage or deferential treatment of any kind. For example, it would be improper for a judge to allude to his or her judicial status to gain favorable treatment in encounters with traffic officials. Similarly, a judge must not use judicial letterhead to gain an advantage in conducting his or her personal business.

[2] A judge may provide a reference or recommendation for an individual based upon the judge’s personal knowledge. The judge may use official letterhead if the judge indicates that the reference is personal and if there is no likelihood that the use of the letterhead would reasonably be perceived as an attempt to exert pressure by reason of the judicial office.

[3] Judges may participate in the process of judicial selection by cooperating with appointing authorities and screening committees, and by responding to inquiries from such entities concerning the professional qualifications of a person being considered for judicial office.

[4] Special considerations arise when judges write or contribute to publications of for-profit entities, whether related or unrelated to the law. A judge should not permit anyone associated with the publication of such materials to exploit the judge’s office in a manner that violates this Rule or other applicable law. In contracts for publication of a judge’s writing, the judge should retain sufficient control over the advertising to avoid such exploitation.

A JUDGE SHALL PERFORM THE DUTIES OF JUDICIAL OFFICE IMPARTIALLY, COMPETENTLY, AND DILIGENTLY.

RULE 2.1

Giving Precedence to the Duties of Judicial Office

The duties of judicial office, as prescribed by law,* shall take precedence over all of a judge's personal and extrajudicial activities.

COMMENT

[1] To ensure that judges are available to fulfill their judicial duties, judges must conduct their personal and extrajudicial activities to minimize the risk of conflicts that would result in frequent disqualification. See Canon 3.

[2] Although it is not a duty of judicial office unless prescribed by law, judges are encouraged to participate in activities that promote public understanding of and confidence in the justice system.

RULE 2.2

Impartiality and Fairness

A judge shall uphold and apply the law,* and shall perform all duties of judicial office fairly and impartially.*

COMMENT

[1] To ensure impartiality and fairness to all parties, a judge must be objective and open-minded.

[2] Although each judge comes to the bench with a unique background and personal philosophy, a judge must interpret and apply the law without regard to whether the judge approves or disapproves of the law in question.

[3] When applying and interpreting the law, a judge sometimes may make good-faith errors of fact or law. Errors of this kind do not violate this Rule.

[4] It is not a violation of this Rule for a judge to make reasonable accommodations to ensure pro se litigants the opportunity to have their matters fairly heard.

RULE 2.3
Bias, Prejudice, and Harassment

(A) A judge shall perform the duties of judicial office, including administrative duties, without bias or prejudice.

(B) A judge shall not, in the performance of judicial duties, by words or conduct manifest bias or prejudice, or engage in harassment, including but not limited to bias, prejudice, or harassment based upon race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation, and shall not permit court staff, court officials, or others subject to the judge’s direction and control to do so.

(C) A judge shall require lawyers in proceedings before the court to refrain from manifesting bias or prejudice, or engaging in harassment, based upon attributes including but not limited to race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation, against parties, witnesses, lawyers, or others.

(D) The restrictions of paragraphs (B) and (C) do not preclude judges or lawyers from making legitimate reference to the listed factors, or similar factors, when they are relevant to an issue in a proceeding.

COMMENT

[1] A judge who manifests bias or prejudice in a proceeding impairs the fairness of the proceeding and brings the judiciary into disrepute.

[2] Examples of manifestations of bias or prejudice include but are not limited to epithets; slurs; demeaning nicknames; negative stereotyping; attempted humor based upon stereotypes; threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts; suggestions of connections between race, ethnicity, or nationality and crime; and irrelevant references to personal characteristics. Even facial expressions and body language can convey to parties and lawyers in the proceeding, jurors, the media, and others an appearance of bias or prejudice. A judge must avoid conduct that may reasonably be perceived as prejudiced or biased.

[3] Harassment, as referred to in paragraphs (B) and (C), is verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward a person on bases such as race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation.

1 [4] Sexual harassment includes but is not limited to sexual advances, requests for
2 sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that is unwelcome.
3

4 RULE 2.4

5 External Influences on Judicial Conduct

6
7 (A) A judge shall not be swayed by public clamor or fear of criticism.

8
9 (B) A judge shall not permit family, social, political, financial, or other 10 interests or relationships to influence the judge's judicial conduct or 11 judgment.

13 (C) A judge shall not convey or permit others to convey the impression
14 that any person or organization is in a position to influence the judge.

17
18 [1] An independent judiciary requires that judges decide cases according to the law
19 and facts, without regard to whether particular laws or litigants are popular or unpopular
20 with the public, the media, government officials, or the judge's friends or family.
21 Confidence in the judiciary is eroded if judicial decision making is perceived to be 22 subject to inappropriate outside influences.
23

24 RULE 2.5

25 Competence, Diligence, and Cooperation

26
27 (A) A judge shall perform judicial and administrative duties, competently 28 and diligently.
29

30 (B) A judge shall cooperate with other judges and court officials in the 31 administration of court business.
32

34
35 [1] Competence in the performance of judicial duties requires the legal knowledge, 36 skill, thoroughness, and preparation reasonably necessary to perform a judge's 37 responsibilities of judicial office.

39 [2] A judge should seek the necessary docket time, court staff, expertise, and 40 resources to discharge all adjudicative and administrative responsibilities.

42 [3] Prompt disposition of the court's business requires a judge to devote adequate 43 time to judicial duties, to be punctual in attending court and expeditious in determining 44 matters under submission, and to take reasonable measures to ensure that court officials, 45 litigants, and their lawyers cooperate with the judge to that end.

1 [4] In disposing of matters promptly and efficiently, a judge must demonstrate due
2 regard for the rights of parties to be heard and to have issues resolved without
3 unnecessary cost or delay. A judge should monitor and supervise cases in ways that 4 reduce or eliminate dilatory practices, avoidable delays, and unnecessary costs.

5
6 RULE 2.6

7 Ensuring the Right to Be Heard

8
9 (A) A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a 10 proceeding, or that person's lawyer, the right to be heard according to law.*

12 (B) A judge may encourage parties to a proceeding and their lawyers to 13 settle matters in dispute but shall not act in a manner that coerces any party
14 into settlement.

15

17
18 [1] The right to be heard is an essential component of a fair and impartial system of 19 justice. Substantive rights of litigants can be protected only if procedures protecting the 20 right to be heard are observed.

22 [2] The judge plays an important role in overseeing the settlement of disputes, but 23 should be careful that efforts to further settlement do not undermine any party's right to 24 be heard according to law. The judge should keep in mind the effect that the judge's 25 participation in settlement discussions may have, not only on the judge's own views of 26 the case, but also on the perceptions of the lawyers and the parties if the case remains
27 with the judge after settlement efforts are unsuccessful. Among the factors that a judge
28 should consider when deciding upon an appropriate settlement practice for a case are (1) 29 whether the parties have requested or voluntarily consented to a certain level of 30 participation by the judge in settlement discussions, (2) whether the parties and their 31 counsel are relatively sophisticated in legal matters, (3) whether the case will be tried by 32 the judge or a jury, (4) whether the parties participate with their counsel in settlement 33 discussions, (5) whether any parties are unrepresented by counsel, and (6) whether the 34 matter is civil or criminal.

36 [3] Judges must be mindful of the effect settlement discussions can have, not only on 37 their objectivity and impartiality, but also on the appearance of their objectivity and 38 impartiality. Despite a judge's best efforts, there may be instances when information 39 obtained during settlement discussions could influence a judge's decision making during 40 trial, and, in such instances, the judge should consider whether disqualification may be 41 appropriate. See Rule 2.11(A)(1).

42
43 RULE 2.7

44 Responsibility to Decide

1 A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge, except when 2 disqualification is required by Rule 2.11 or other law.*

3

5
6 [1] Judges must be available to decide the matters that come before the court.
7 Although there are times when disqualification is necessary to protect the rights of 8 litigants and preserve public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality
9 of the judiciary, judges must be available to decide matters that come before the courts.
10 Unwarranted disqualification may bring public disfavor to the court and to the judge
11 personally. The dignity of the court, the judge's respect for fulfillment of judicial duties,
12 and a proper concern for the burdens that may be imposed upon the judge's colleagues
13 require that a judge not use disqualification to avoid cases that present difficult, 14 controversial, or unpopular issues.

15
16 RULE 2.8

17 Decorum, Demeanor, and Communication with Jurors

18
19 (A) A judge shall require order and decorum in proceedings before the 20 court.

21
22 (B) A judge shall be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, 23 witnesses, lawyers, court staff, court officials, and others with whom the 24 judge deals in an official capacity, and shall require similar conduct of 25 lawyers, court staff, court officials, and others subject to the judge's direction
26 and control.

28 (C) A judge shall not commend or criticize jurors for their verdict other 29 than in a court order or opinion in a proceeding.

30
31 COMMENT

32
33 [1] The duty to hear all proceedings with patience and courtesy is not inconsistent
34 with the duty imposed in Rule 2.5 to dispose promptly of the business of the court.
35 Judges can be efficient and businesslike while being patient and deliberate.

37 [2] Commending or criticizing jurors for their verdict may imply a judicial 38 expectation in future cases and may impair a juror's ability to be fair and impartial in a 39 subsequent case.

41 [3] A judge who is not otherwise prohibited by law from doing so may meet with 42 jurors who choose to remain after trial but should be careful not to discuss the merits of 43 the case.

Ex Parte Communications

(A) A judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications, or consider other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties or their lawyers, concerning a pending* or impending matter,* except as follows:

(1) When circumstances require it, ex parte communication for scheduling, administrative, or emergency purposes, which does not address substantive matters, is permitted, provided:

(a) the judge reasonably believes that no party will gain a procedural, substantive, or tactical advantage as a result of the ex parte communication; and

(b) the judge makes provision promptly to notify all other parties of the substance of the ex parte communication, and gives the parties an opportunity to respond.

(2) A judge may obtain the written advice of a disinterested expert on the law applicable to a proceeding before the judge, if the judge gives advance notice to the parties of the person to be consulted and the subject matter of the advice to be solicited, and affords the parties a reasonable opportunity to object and respond to the notice and to the advice received.

(3) A judge may consult with court staff and court officials whose functions are to aid the judge in carrying out the judge's adjudicative responsibilities, or with other judges, provided the judge makes reasonable efforts to avoid receiving factual information that is not part of the record, and does not abrogate the responsibility personally to decide the matter.

(4) A judge may, with the consent of the parties, confer separately with the parties and their lawyers in an effort to settle matters pending before the judge.

(5) A judge may initiate, permit, or consider any ex parte communication when expressly authorized by law* to do so.

(B) If a judge inadvertently receives an unauthorized ex parte communication bearing upon the substance of a matter, the judge shall make provision promptly to notify the parties of the substance of the communication and provide the parties with an opportunity to respond.

1 (C) A judge shall not investigate facts in a matter independently, and shall
2 consider only the evidence presented and any facts that may properly be 3 judicially noticed.
4

5 (D) A judge shall make reasonable efforts, including providing
6 appropriate supervision, to ensure that this Rule is not violated by court
7 staff, court officials, and others subject to the judge's direction and control.
8

10
11 [1] To the extent reasonably possible, all parties or their lawyers shall be included in 12 communications with a judge.

14 [2] Whenever the presence of a party or notice to a party is required by this Rule, it is 15 the party's lawyer, or if the party is unrepresented, the party, who is to be present or to 16 whom notice is to be given.

18 [3] The proscription against communications concerning a proceeding includes 19 communications with lawyers, law teachers, and other persons who are not participants in 20 the proceeding, except to the limited extent permitted by this Rule.

22 [4] A judge may initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications expressly 23 authorized by law, such as when serving on therapeutic or problem-solving courts, mental 24 health courts, or drug courts. In this capacity, judges may assume a more interactive role 25 with parties, treatment providers, probation officers, social workers, and others.
26

27 [5] A judge may consult with other judges on pending matters, but must avoid ex 28 parte discussions of a case with judges who have previously been disqualified from 29 hearing the matter, and with judges who have appellate jurisdiction over the matter.
30

31 [6] The prohibition against a judge investigating the facts in a matter extends to 32 information available in all mediums, including electronic.
33

34 [7] A judge may consult ethics advisory committees, outside counsel, or legal experts 35 concerning the judge's compliance with this Code. Such consultations are not subject to 36 the restrictions of paragraph (A)(2).
37

38 RULE 2.10

39 Judicial Statements on Pending and Impending Cases

40
41 (A) A judge shall not make any public statement that might reasonably be 42 expected to affect the outcome or impair the fairness of a matter pending* or 43 impending* in any court, or make any nonpublic statement that might 44 substantially interfere with a fair trial or hearing.
45

46 (B) A judge shall not, in connection with cases, controversies, or issues 47 that are likely to come before the court, make pledges, promises, or

1 commitments that are inconsistent with the impartial* performance of the
2 adjudicative duties of judicial office.

4 (C) A judge shall require court staff, court officials, and others subject to 5 the judge's direction and control to refrain from making statements that the 6 judge would be prohibited from making by paragraphs (A) and (B).

8 (D) Notwithstanding the restrictions in paragraph (A), a judge may make 9 public statements in the course of official duties, may explain court
10 procedures, and may comment on any proceeding in which the judge is a 11 litigant in a personal capacity.

13 (E) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (A), a judge may respond
14 directly or through a third party to allegations in the media or elsewhere
15 concerning the judge's conduct in a matter.

16

18
19 [1] This Rule's restrictions on judicial speech are essential to the maintenance of the 20 independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary.

22 [2] This Rule does not prohibit a judge from commenting on proceedings in which 23 the judge is a litigant in a personal capacity. In cases in which the judge is a litigant in an 24 official capacity, such as a writ of mandamus, the judge must not comment publicly.

26 [3] Depending upon the circumstances, the judge should consider whether it may be 27 preferable for a third party, rather than the judge, to respond or issue statements in 28 connection with allegations concerning the judge's conduct in a matter.

29
30 RULE 2.11

31 Disqualification

32
33 (A) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which 34 the judge's impartiality* might reasonably be questioned, including but not 35 limited to the following circumstances:

37 (1) The judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party 38 or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge* of facts that are in 39 dispute in the proceeding.

41 (2) The judge knows* that the judge, the judge's spouse or 42 domestic partner,* or a person within the third degree of 43 relationship* to either of them, or the spouse or domestic partner of 44 such a person is:

(b) acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(c) a person who has more than a de minimis* interest that could be substantially affected by the proceeding; or

(d) likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(3) The judge knows that he or she, individually or as a fiduciary,* or the judge's spouse, domestic partner, parent, or child, or any other member of the judge's family residing in the judge's household,* has an economic interest* in the subject matter in controversy or is a party to the proceeding.

(4) The judge knows or learns by means of a timely motion that a party, a party's lawyer, or the law firm of a party's lawyer has within the previous [insert number] year[s] made aggregate* contributions* to the judge's campaign in an amount that [is greater than $[insert amount] for an individual or $[insert amount] for an entity] [is reasonable and appropriate for an individual or an entity].

(5) The judge, while a judge or a judicial candidate,* has made a public statement, other than in a court proceeding, judicial decision, or opinion, that commits or appears to commit the judge to reach a particular result or rule in a particular way in the proceeding or controversy.

(6) The judge:

(a) served as a lawyer in the matter in controversy, or was associated with a lawyer who participated substantially as a lawyer in the matter during such association;

(b) served in governmental employment, and in such capacity participated personally and substantially as a lawyer or public official concerning the proceeding, or has publicly expressed in such capacity an opinion concerning the merits of the particular matter in controversy;

(c) was a material witness concerning the matter; or

(d) previously presided as a judge over the matter in another court.

(B) A judge shall keep informed about the judge's personal and fiduciary economic interests, and make a reasonable effort to keep informed about the personal economic interests of the judge's spouse or domestic partner and minor children residing in the judge's household.

2 (C) A judge subject to disqualification under this Rule, other than for bias
3 or prejudice under paragraph (A)(1), may disclose on the record the basis of 4 the judge’s disqualification and may ask the parties and their lawyers to 5 consider, outside the presence of the judge and court personnel, whether to 6 waive disqualification. If, following the disclosure, the parties and lawyers
7 agree, without participation by the judge or court personnel, that the judge
8 should not be disqualified, the judge may participate in the proceeding. The 9 agreement shall be incorporated into the record of the proceeding.

10

12
13 [1] Under this Rule, a judge is disqualified whenever the judge’s impartiality might 14 reasonably be questioned, regardless of whether any of the specific provisions of 15 paragraphs (A)(1) through (6) apply. In many jurisdictions, the term “recusal” is used
16 interchangeably with the term “disqualification.”

18 [2] A judge’s obligation not to hear or decide matters in which disqualification is 19 required applies regardless of whether a motion to disqualify is filed.

21 [3] The rule of necessity may override the rule of disqualification. For example, a 22 judge might be required to participate in judicial review of a judicial salary statute, or 23 might be the only judge available in a matter requiring immediate judicial action, such as 24 a hearing on probable cause or a temporary restraining order. In matters that require 25 immediate action, the judge must disclose on the record the basis for possible 26 disqualification and make reasonable efforts to transfer the matter to another judge as 27 soon as practicable.

29 [4] The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a 30 relative of the judge is affiliated does not itself disqualify the judge. If, however, the 31 judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned under paragraph (A), or the relative
32 is known by the judge to have an interest in the law firm that could be substantially
33 affected by the proceeding under paragraph (A)(2)(c), the judge’s disqualification is 34 required.

35
36 [5] A judge should disclose on the record information that the judge believes the 37 parties or their lawyers might reasonably consider relevant to a possible motion for 38 disqualification, even if the judge believes there is no basis for disqualification.

40 [6] “Economic interest,” as set forth in the Terminology section, means ownership of 41 more than a de minimis legal or equitable interest. Except for situations in which a judge 42 participates in the management of such a legal or equitable interest, or the interest could 43 be substantially affected by the outcome of a proceeding before a judge, it does not 44 include:

- 45 (1) an interest in the individual holdings within a mutual or common 46 investment fund;

- 1 (2) an interest in securities held by an educational, religious, charitable,
2 fraternal, or civic organization in which the judge or the judge's spouse, domestic
3 partner, parent, or child serves as a director, officer, advisor, or other participant;
4 (3) a deposit in a financial institution or deposits or proprietary interests the 5 judge may maintain as a member of a mutual savings association or credit union,
6 or similar proprietary interests; or
7 (4) an interest in the issuer of government securities held by the judge.
8

9 RULE 2.12

10 Supervisory Duties

11
12 (A) A judge shall require court staff, court officials, and others subject to 13 the judge's direction and control to act in a manner consistent with the 14 judge's obligations under this Code.

16 (B) A judge with supervisory authority for the performance of other
17 judges shall take reasonable measures to ensure that those judges properly 18 discharge their judicial responsibilities, including the prompt disposition of 19 matters before them.
20

22
23 [1] A judge is responsible for his or her own conduct and for the conduct of others,
24 such as staff, when those persons are acting at the judge's direction or control. A judge 25 may not direct court personnel to engage in conduct on the judge's behalf or as the 26 judge's representative when such conduct would violate the Code if undertaken by the 27 judge.
28

29 [2] Public confidence in the judicial system depends upon timely justice. To promote 30 the efficient administration of justice, a judge with supervisory authority must take the 31 steps needed to ensure that judges under his or her supervision administer their workloads 32 promptly.
33

34 RULE 2.13

35 Administrative Appointments

36
37 (A) In making administrative appointments, a judge:

38
39 (1) shall exercise the power of appointment impartially* and on 40 the basis of merit; and

41
42 (2) shall avoid nepotism, favoritism, and unnecessary
43 appointments.

45 (B) A judge shall not appoint a lawyer to a position if the judge either 46 knows* that the lawyer, or the lawyer's spouse or domestic partner,* has

1 contributed more than $[insert amount] within the prior [insert number]
2 year[s] to the judge’s election campaign, or learns of such a contribution* by 3 means of a timely motion by a party or other person properly interested in 4 the matter, unless:

5
6 (1) the position is substantially uncompensated;

7
8 (2) the lawyer has been selected in rotation from a list of qualified
9 and available lawyers compiled without regard to their having made 10 political contributions; or

11
12 (3) the judge or another presiding or administrative judge
13 affirmatively finds that no other lawyer is willing, competent, and able 14 to accept the position.

16 (C) A judge shall not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair
17 value of services rendered.

18

20
21 [1] Appointees of a judge include assigned counsel, officials such as referees,
22 commissioners, special masters, receivers, and guardians, and personnel such as clerks,
23 secretaries, and bailiffs. Consent by the parties to an appointment or an award of 24 compensation does not relieve the judge of the obligation prescribed by paragraph (A).

26 [2] Unless otherwise defined by law, nepotism is the appointment or hiring of any 27 relative within the third degree of relationship of either the judge or the judge’s spouse or 28 domestic partner, or the spouse or domestic partner of such relative.

29
30 [3] The rule against making administrative appointments of lawyers who have 31 contributed in excess of a specified dollar amount to a judge’s election campaign includes 32 an exception for positions that are substantially uncompensated, such as those for which 33 the lawyer’s compensation is limited to reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses.

34
35 RULE 2.14

36 Disability and Impairment

37
38 A judge having a reasonable belief that the performance of a lawyer or another
39 judge is impaired by drugs or alcohol, or by a mental, emotional, or physical 40 condition, shall take appropriate action, which may include a confidential referral
41 to a lawyer or judicial assistance program.

42

44
45 [1] “Appropriate action” means action intended and reasonably likely to help the 46 judge or lawyer in question address the problem and prevent harm to the justice system.
47 Depending upon the circumstances, appropriate action may include but is not limited to

1 speaking directly to the impaired person, notifying an individual with supervisory
2 responsibility over the impaired person, or making a referral to an assistance program.

4 [2] Taking or initiating corrective action by way of referral to an assistance program
5 may satisfy a judge's responsibility under this Rule. Assistance programs have many 6 approaches for offering help to impaired judges and lawyers, such as intervention,
7 counseling, or referral to appropriate health care professionals. Depending upon the 8 gravity of the conduct that has come to the judge's attention, however, the judge may be 9 required to take other action, such as reporting the impaired judge or lawyer to the 10 appropriate authority, agency, or body. See Rule 2.15.

11 12 RULE 2.15

13 Responding to Judicial and Lawyer Misconduct

14
15 (A) A judge having knowledge* that another judge has committed a
16 violation of this Code that raises a substantial question regarding the judge's 17 honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a judge in other respects shall inform 18 the appropriate authority.*

20 (B) A judge having knowledge that a lawyer has committed a violation of 21 the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a substantial question 22 regarding the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer in 23 other respects shall inform the appropriate authority.

25 (C) A judge who receives information indicating a substantial likelihood 26 that another judge has committed a violation of this Code shall take 27 appropriate action.

29 (D) A judge who receives information indicating a substantial likelihood 30 that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct 31 shall take appropriate action.

34
35 [1] Taking action to address known misconduct is a judge's obligation. Paragraphs
36 (A) and (B) impose an obligation on the judge to report to the appropriate disciplinary 37 authority the known misconduct of another judge or a lawyer that raises a substantial 38 question regarding the honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness of that judge or lawyer.
39 Ignoring or denying known misconduct among one's judicial colleagues or members of 40 the legal profession undermines a judge's responsibility to participate in efforts to ensure 41 public respect for the justice system. This Rule limits the reporting obligation to those 42 offenses that an independent judiciary must vigorously endeavor to prevent.

44 [2] A judge who does not have actual knowledge that another judge or a lawyer may 45 have committed misconduct, but receives information indicating a substantial likelihood 46 of such misconduct, is required to take appropriate action under paragraphs (C) and (D).
47 Appropriate action may include, but is not limited to, communicating directly with the

1 judge who may have violated this Code, communicating with a supervising judge, or 2 reporting the suspected violation to the appropriate authority or other agency or body.
3 Similarly, actions to be taken in response to information indicating that a lawyer has 4 committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct may include but are not
5 limited to communicating directly with the lawyer who may have committed the 6 violation, or reporting the suspected violation to the appropriate authority or other agency
7 or body.

8
9 RULE 2.16

10 Cooperation with Disciplinary Authorities

11
12 (A) A judge shall cooperate and be candid and honest with judicial and 13 lawyer disciplinary agencies.

15 (B) A judge shall not retaliate, directly or indirectly, against a person
16 known* or suspected to have assisted or cooperated with an investigation of a 17 judge or a lawyer.

18

20
21 [1] Cooperation with investigations and proceedings of judicial and lawyer discipline
22 agencies, as required in paragraph (A), instills confidence in judges' commitment to the 23 integrity of the judicial system and the protection of the public.

CANON 3

A JUDGE SHALL CONDUCT THE JUDGE’S PERSONAL AND EXTRAJUDICIAL ACTIVITIES TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF CONFLICT WITH THE OBLIGATIONS OF JUDICIAL OFFICE.

RULE 3.1

Extrajudicial Activities in General

A judge may engage in extrajudicial activities, except as prohibited by law* or this Code. However, when engaging in extrajudicial activities, a judge shall not:

- (A) participate in activities that will interfere with the proper performance of the judge’s judicial duties;
- (B) participate in activities that will lead to frequent disqualification of the judge;
- (C) participate in activities that would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge’s independence,* integrity,* or impartiality;
- (D) engage in conduct that would appear to a reasonable person to be coercive; or
- (E) make use of court premises, staff, stationery, equipment, or other resources, except for incidental use for activities that concern the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, or unless such additional use is permitted by law.

COMMENT

[1] To the extent that time permits, and judicial independence and impartiality are not compromised, judges are encouraged to engage in appropriate extrajudicial activities. Judges are uniquely qualified to engage in extrajudicial activities that concern the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, such as by speaking, writing, teaching, or participating in scholarly research projects. In addition, judges are permitted and encouraged to engage in educational, religious, charitable, fraternal or civic extrajudicial activities not conducted for profit, even when the activities do not involve the law. See Rule 3.7.

[2] Participation in both law-related and other extrajudicial activities helps integrate judges into their communities, and furthers public understanding of and respect for courts and the judicial system.

[3] Discriminatory actions and expressions of bias or prejudice by a judge, even outside the judge’s official or judicial actions, are likely to appear to a reasonable person

1 to call into question the judge's integrity and impartiality. Examples include jokes or 2 other remarks that demean individuals based upon their race, sex, gender, religion,
3 national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status. For 4 the same reason, a judge's extrajudicial activities must not be conducted in connection or 5 affiliation with an organization that practices invidious discrimination. See Rule 3.6.

6
7 [4] While engaged in permitted extrajudicial activities, judges must not coerce others
8 or take action that would reasonably be perceived as coercive. For example, depending 9 upon the circumstances, a judge's solicitation of contributions or memberships for an
10 organization, even as permitted by Rule 3.7(A), might create the risk that the person 11 solicited would feel obligated to respond favorably, or would do so to curry favor with 12 the judge.

13
14 RULE 3.2

15 Appearances before Governmental Bodies and Consultation with 16 Government Officials

18 A judge shall not appear voluntarily at a public hearing before, or otherwise consult 19 with, an executive or a legislative body or official, except:

20
21 (A) in connection with matters concerning the law, the legal system, or the 22 administration of justice;

24 (B) in connection with matters about which the judge acquired knowledge 25 or expertise in the course of the judge's judicial duties; or

26
27 (C) when the judge is acting pro se in a matter involving the judge's legal 28 or economic interests, or when the judge is acting in a fiduciary* capacity.

29
30 COMMENT

31
32 [1] Judges possess special expertise in matters of law, the legal system, and the 33 administration of justice, and may properly share that expertise with governmental bodies 34 and executive or legislative branch officials.

36 [2] In appearing before governmental bodies or consulting with government officials, 37 judges must be mindful that they remain subject to other provisions of this Code, such as 38 Rule 1.3, prohibiting judges from using the prestige of office to advance their own or 39 others' interests, Rule 2.10, governing public comment on pending and impending
40 matters, and Rule 3.1(C), prohibiting judges from engaging in extrajudicial activities that 41 would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge's independence, integrity, or 42 impartiality.

44 [3] In general, it would be an unnecessary and unfair burden to prohibit judges from 45 appearing before governmental bodies or consulting with government officials on matters 46 that are likely to affect them as private citizens, such as zoning proposals affecting their 47 real property. In engaging in such activities, however, judges must not refer to their

1 judicial positions, and must otherwise exercise caution to avoid using the prestige of
2 judicial office.

3
4 RULE 3.3

5 Testifying as a Character Witness

6
7 A judge shall not testify as a character witness in a judicial, administrative, or other
8 adjudicatory proceeding or otherwise vouch for the character of a person in a legal 9 proceeding, except when duly summoned.

10

12
13 [1] A judge who, without being subpoenaed, testifies as a character witness abuses
14 the prestige of judicial office to advance the interests of another. See Rule 1.3. Except in 15 unusual circumstances where the demands of justice require, a judge should discourage a 16 party from requiring the judge to testify as a character witness.

17
18 RULE 3.4

19 Appointments to Governmental Positions

21 A judge shall not accept appointment to a governmental committee, board,
22 commission, or other governmental position, unless it is one that concerns the law,
23 the legal system, or the administration of justice.

24
25 COMMENT

26
27 [1] Rule 3.4 implicitly acknowledges the value of judges accepting appointments to 28 entities that concern the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. Even in 29 such instances, however, a judge should assess the appropriateness of accepting an 30 appointment, paying particular attention to the subject matter of the appointment and the 31 availability and allocation of judicial resources, including the judge's time commitments, 32 and giving due regard to the requirements of the independence and impartiality of the 33 judiciary.

35 [2] A judge may represent his or her country, state, or locality on ceremonial
36 occasions or in connection with historical, educational, or cultural activities. Such 37 representation does not constitute acceptance of a government position.

38
39 RULE 3.5

40 Use of Nonpublic Information

41
42 A judge shall not intentionally disclose or use nonpublic information* acquired in a 43 judicial capacity for any purpose unrelated to the judge's judicial duties.

3 [1] In the course of performing judicial duties, a judge may acquire information of 4 commercial or other value that is unavailable to the public. The judge must not reveal or 5 use such information for personal gain or for any purpose unrelated to his or her judicial 6 duties.

8 [2] This rule is not intended, however, to affect a judge's ability to act on information
9 as necessary to protect the health or safety of the judge or a member of a judge's family,
10 court personnel, or other judicial officers if consistent with other provisions of this Code.

13 Affiliation with Discriminatory Organizations

14

15 (A) A judge shall not hold membership in any organization that practices 16 invidious discrimination on the basis of race, sex, gender, religion, national 17 origin, ethnicity, or sexual orientation.

19 (B) A judge shall not use the benefits or facilities of an organization if the 20 judge knows* or should know that the organization practices invidious
21 discrimination on one or more of the bases identified in paragraph (A). A 22 judge's attendance at an event in a facility of an organization that the judge
23 is not permitted to join is not a violation of this Rule when the judge's 24 attendance is an isolated event that could not reasonably be perceived as an 25 endorsement of the organization's practices.

26

27 COMMENT

28

29 [1] A judge's public manifestation of approval of invidious discrimination on any 30 basis gives rise to the appearance of impropriety and diminishes public confidence in the 31 integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. A judge's membership in an organization that 32 practices invidious discrimination creates the perception that the judge's impartiality is 33 impaired.

35 [2] An organization is generally said to discriminate invidiously if it arbitrarily
36 excludes from membership on the basis of race, sex, gender, religion, national origin,
37 ethnicity, or sexual orientation persons who would otherwise be eligible for admission.
38 Whether an organization practices invidious discrimination is a complex question to 39 which judges should be attentive. The answer cannot be determined from a mere 40 examination of an organization's current membership rolls, but rather, depends upon how 41 the organization selects members, as well as other relevant factors, such as whether the 42 organization is dedicated to the preservation of religious, ethnic, or cultural values of 43 legitimate common interest to its members, or whether it is an intimate, purely private 44 organization whose membership limitations could not constitutionally be prohibited.

45

46 [3] When a judge learns that an organization to which the judge belongs engages in 47 invidious discrimination, the judge must resign immediately from the organization.

[4] A judge's membership in a religious organization as a lawful exercise of the freedom of religion is not a violation of this Rule.

[5] This Rule does not apply to national or state military service.

Participation in Educational, Religious, Charitable, Fraternal, or Civic Organizations and Activities

(A) Subject to the requirements of Rule 3.1, a judge may participate in activities sponsored by organizations or governmental entities concerned with the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, and those sponsored by or on behalf of educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organizations not conducted for profit, including but not limited to the following activities:

- (1) assisting such an organization or entity in planning related to fund-raising, and participating in the management and investment of the organization's or entity's funds;
- (2) soliciting* contributions* for such an organization or entity, but only from members of the judge's family,* or from judges over whom the judge does not exercise supervisory or appellate authority;
- (3) soliciting membership for such an organization or entity, even though the membership dues or fees generated may be used to support the objectives of the organization or entity, but only if the organization or entity is concerned with the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;
- (4) appearing or speaking at, receiving an award or other recognition at, being featured on the program of, and permitting his or her title to be used in connection with an event of such an organization or entity, but if the event serves a fund-raising purpose, the judge may participate only if the event concerns the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;
- (5) making recommendations to such a public or private fund-granting organization or entity in connection with its programs and activities, but only if the organization or entity is concerned with the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice; and
- (6) serving as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of such an organization or entity, unless it is likely that the organization or entity:

1 (a) will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily
2 come before the judge; or

4 (b) will frequently be engaged in adversary proceedings in
5 the court of which the judge is a member, or in any court
6 subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court of which the 7 judge is a member.

8
9 (B) A judge may encourage lawyers to provide pro bono publico legal 10 services.

11

13
14 [1] The activities permitted by paragraph (A) generally include those sponsored by or 15 undertaken on behalf of public or private not-for-profit educational institutions, and other
16 not-for-profit organizations, including law-related, charitable, and other organizations.

18 [2] Even for law-related organizations, a judge should consider whether the 19 membership and purposes of the organization, or the nature of the judge's participation in 20 or association with the organization, would conflict with the judge's obligation to refrain 21 from activities that reflect adversely upon a judge's independence, integrity, and 22 impartiality.

24 [3] Mere attendance at an event, whether or not the event serves a fund-raising
25 purpose, does not constitute a violation of paragraph A(4). It is also generally permissible
26 for a judge to serve as an usher or a food server or preparer, or to perform similar 27 functions, at fund-raising events sponsored by educational, religious, charitable, fraternal,
28 or civic organizations. Such activities are not solicitation and do not present an element
29 of coercion or abuse the prestige of judicial office.

31 [4] Identification of a judge's position in educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, 32 or civic organizations on letterhead used for fund-raising or membership solicitation does 33 not violate this Rule. The letterhead may list the judge's title or judicial office if 34 comparable designations are used for other persons.

36 [5] In addition to appointing lawyers to serve as counsel for indigent parties in 37 individual cases, a judge may promote broader access to justice by encouraging lawyers
38 to participate in pro bono publico legal services, if in doing so the judge does not employ 39 coercion, or abuse the prestige of judicial office. Such encouragement may take many 40 forms, including providing lists of available programs, training lawyers to do pro bono 41 publico legal work, and participating in events recognizing lawyers who have done pro 42 bono publico work.

Appointments to Fiduciary Positions

(A) A judge shall not accept appointment to serve in a fiduciary* position, such as executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, attorney in fact, or other personal representative, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of the judge’s family,* and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties.

(B) A judge shall not serve in a fiduciary position if the judge as fiduciary will likely be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judge, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which the judge serves, or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(C) A judge acting in a fiduciary capacity shall be subject to the same restrictions on engaging in financial activities that apply to a judge personally.

(D) If a person who is serving in a fiduciary position becomes a judge, he or she must comply with this Rule as soon as reasonably practicable, but in no event later than [one year] after becoming a judge.

COMMENT

[1] A judge should recognize that other restrictions imposed by this Code may conflict with a judge’s obligations as a fiduciary; in such circumstances, a judge should resign as fiduciary. For example, serving as a fiduciary might require frequent disqualification of a judge under Rule 2.11 because a judge is deemed to have an economic interest in shares of stock held by a trust if the amount of stock held is more than de minimis.

RULE 3.9

Service as Arbitrator or Mediator

A judge shall not act as an arbitrator or a mediator or perform other judicial functions apart from the judge’s official duties unless expressly authorized by law.*

COMMENT

[1] This Rule does not prohibit a judge from participating in arbitration, mediation, or settlement conferences performed as part of assigned judicial duties. Rendering dispute resolution services apart from those duties, whether or not for economic gain, is prohibited unless it is expressly authorized by law.

RULE 3.10
Practice of Law

A judge shall not practice law. A judge may act pro se and may, without compensation, give legal advice to and draft or review documents for a member of the judge's family,* but is prohibited from serving as the family member's lawyer in any forum.

COMMENT

[1] A judge may act pro se in all legal matters, including matters involving litigation and matters involving appearances before or other dealings with governmental bodies. A judge must not use the prestige of office to advance the judge's personal or family interests. See Rule 1.3.

RULE 3.11
Financial, Business, or Remunerative Activities

(A) A judge may hold and manage investments of the judge and members of the judge's family.*

(B) A judge shall not serve as an officer, director, manager, general partner, advisor, or employee of any business entity except that a judge may manage or participate in:

- (1) a business closely held by the judge or members of the judge's family; or
- (2) a business entity primarily engaged in investment of the financial resources of the judge or members of the judge's family.

(C) A judge shall not engage in financial activities permitted under paragraphs (A) and (B) if they will:

- (1) interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties;
- (2) lead to frequent disqualification of the judge;
- (3) involve the judge in frequent transactions or continuing business relationships with lawyers or other persons likely to come before the court on which the judge serves; or
- (4) result in violation of other provisions of this Code.

2
3 [1] Judges are generally permitted to engage in financial activities, including 4 managing real estate and other investments for themselves or for members of their
5 families. Participation in these activities, like participation in other extrajudicial
6 activities, is subject to the requirements of this Code. For example, it would be improper 7 for a judge to spend so much time on business activities that it interferes with the 8 performance of judicial duties. See Rule 2.1. Similarly, it would be improper for a judge 9 to use his or her official title or appear in judicial robes in business advertising, or to 10 conduct his or her business or financial affairs in such a way that disqualification is 11 frequently required. See Rules 1.3 and 2.11.

13 [2] As soon as practicable without serious financial detriment, the judge must divest
14 himself or herself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent 15 disqualification or otherwise violate this Rule.

16
17 RULE 3.12

18 Compensation for Extrajudicial Activities

19
20 A judge may accept reasonable compensation for extrajudicial activities permitted
21 by this Code or other law* unless such acceptance would appear to a reasonable 22 person to undermine the judge's independence,* integrity,* or impartiality.

23

25
26 [1] A judge is permitted to accept honoraria, stipends, fees, wages, salaries, royalties,
27 or other compensation for speaking, teaching, writing, and other extrajudicial activities,
28 provided the compensation is reasonable and commensurate with the task performed. The 29 judge should be mindful, however, that judicial duties must take precedence over other 30 activities. See Rule 2.1.

32 [2] Compensation derived from extrajudicial activities may be subject to public 33 reporting. See Rule 3.15.

34
35 RULE 3.13

36 Acceptance and Reporting of Gifts, Loans, Bequests, Benefits, or Other
37 Things of Value

38
39 (A) A judge shall not accept any gifts, loans, bequests, benefits, or other 40 things of value, if acceptance is prohibited by law* or would appear to a 41 reasonable person to undermine the judge's independence,* integrity,* or 42 impartiality.*

- (1) items with little intrinsic value, such as plaques, certificates, trophies, and greeting cards;
- (2) gifts, loans, bequests, benefits, or other things of value from friends, relatives, or other persons, including lawyers, whose appearance or interest in a proceeding pending* or impending* before the judge would in any event require disqualification of the judge under Rule 2.11;
- (3) ordinary social hospitality;
- (4) commercial or financial opportunities and benefits, including special pricing and discounts, and loans from lending institutions in their regular course of business, if the same opportunities and benefits or loans are made available on the same terms to similarly situated persons who are not judges;
- (5) rewards and prizes given to competitors or participants in random drawings, contests, or other events that are open to persons who are not judges;
- (6) scholarships, fellowships, and similar benefits or awards, if they are available to similarly situated persons who are not judges, based upon the same terms and criteria;
- (7) books, magazines, journals, audiovisual materials, and other resource materials supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or
- (8) gifts, awards, or benefits associated with the business, profession, or other separate activity of a spouse, a domestic partner,* or other family member of a judge residing in the judge's household,* but that incidentally benefit the judge.

(C) Unless otherwise prohibited by law or by paragraph (A), a judge may accept the following items, and must report such acceptance to the extent required by Rule 3.15:

- (1) gifts incident to a public testimonial;
- (2) invitations to the judge and the judge's spouse, domestic partner, or guest to attend without charge:
 - (a) an event associated with a bar-related function or other activity relating to the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice; or

1 (b) an event associated with any of the judge’s educational,
2 religious, charitable, fraternal or civic activities permitted by 3 this Code, if the same invitation is offered to nonjudges who 4 are engaged in similar ways in the activity as is the judge; and

5
6 (3) gifts, loans, bequests, benefits, or other things of value, if the 7 source is a party or other person, including a lawyer, who has come or 8 is likely to come before the judge, or whose interests have come or are 9 likely to come before the judge.

10

12
13 [1] Whenever a judge accepts a gift or other thing of value without paying fair market
14 value, there is a risk that the benefit might be viewed as intended to influence the judge’s
15 decision in a case. Rule 3.13 imposes restrictions upon the acceptance of such benefits, 16 according to the magnitude of the risk. Paragraph (B) identifies circumstances in which 17 the risk that the acceptance would appear to undermine the judge’s independence, 18 integrity, or impartiality is low, and explicitly provides that such items need not be 19 publicly reported. As the value of the benefit or the likelihood that the source of the 20 benefit will appear before the judge increases, the judge is either prohibited under 21 paragraph (A) from accepting the gift, or required under paragraph (C) to publicly report 22 it.

24 [2] Gift-giving between friends and relatives is a common occurrence, and ordinarily 25 does not create an appearance of impropriety or cause reasonable persons to believe that 26 the judge’s independence, integrity, or impartiality has been compromised. In addition,
27 when the appearance of friends or relatives in a case would require the judge’s
28 disqualification under Rule 2.11, there would be no opportunity for a gift to influence the 29 judge’s decision making. Paragraph (B)(2) places no restrictions upon the ability of a 30 judge to accept gifts or other things of value from friends or relatives under these 31 circumstances, and does not require public reporting.

32
33 [3] Businesses and financial institutions frequently make available special pricing, 34 discounts, and other benefits, either in connection with a temporary promotion or for 35 preferred customers, based upon longevity of the relationship, volume of business
36 transacted, and other factors. A judge may freely accept such benefits if they are available 37 to the general public, or if the judge qualifies for the special price or discount according 38 to the same criteria as are applied to persons who are not judges. As an example, loans
39 provided at generally prevailing interest rates are not gifts, but a judge could not accept a 40 loan from a financial institution at below-market interest rates unless the same rate was 41 being made available to the general public for a certain period of time or only to 42 borrowers with specified qualifications that the judge also possesses.

44 [4] Rule 3.13 applies only to acceptance of gifts or other things of value by a judge.
45 Nonetheless, if a gift or other benefit is given to the judge’s spouse, domestic partner, or 46 member of the judge’s family residing in the judge’s household, it may be viewed as an 47 attempt to evade Rule 3.13 and influence the judge indirectly. Where the gift or benefit is

1 being made primarily to such other persons, and the judge is merely an incidental
2 beneficiary, this concern is reduced. A judge should, however, remind family and 3 household members of the restrictions imposed upon judges, and urge them to take these 4 restrictions into account when making decisions about accepting such gifts or benefits.

5
6 [5] Rule 3.13 does not apply to contributions to a judge's campaign for judicial
7 office. Such contributions are governed by other Rules of this Code, including Rules 4.3
8 and 4.4.

9
10 RULE 3.14

11 Reimbursement of Expenses and Waivers of Fees or Charges

12
13 (A) Unless otherwise prohibited by Rules 3.1 and 3.13(A) or other law,* a 14 judge may accept reimbursement of necessary and reasonable expenses for 15 travel, food, lodging, or other incidental expenses, or a waiver or partial 16 waiver of fees or charges for registration, tuition, and similar items, from 17 sources other than the judge's employing entity, if the expenses or charges
18 are associated with the judge's participation in extrajudicial activities
19 permitted by this Code.

21 (B) Reimbursement of expenses for necessary travel, food, lodging, or 22 other incidental expenses shall be limited to the actual costs reasonably 23 incurred by the judge and, when appropriate to the occasion, by the judge's 24 spouse, domestic partner,* or guest.

26 (C) A judge who accepts reimbursement of expenses or waivers or partial 27 waivers of fees or charges on behalf of the judge or the judge's spouse,
28 domestic partner, or guest shall publicly report such acceptance as required
29 by Rule 3.15.

30
31 COMMENT

32
33 [1] Educational, civic, religious, fraternal, and charitable organizations often sponsor
34 meetings, seminars, symposia, dinners, awards ceremonies, and similar events. Judges are 35 encouraged to attend educational programs, as both teachers and participants, in law-36 related and academic disciplines, in furtherance of their duty to remain competent in the 37 law. Participation in a variety of other extrajudicial activity is also permitted and 38 encouraged by this Code.

40 [2] Not infrequently, sponsoring organizations invite certain judges to attend
41 seminars or other events on a fee-waived or partial-fee-waived basis, and sometimes 42 include reimbursement for necessary travel, food, lodging, or other incidental expenses.
43 A judge's decision whether to accept reimbursement of expenses or a waiver or partial 44 waiver of fees or charges in connection with these or other extrajudicial activities must be
45 based upon an assessment of all the circumstances. The judge must undertake a 46 reasonable inquiry to obtain the information necessary to make an informed judgment
47 about whether acceptance would be consistent with the requirements of this Code.

1
2 [3] A judge must assure himself or herself that acceptance of reimbursement or fee
3 waivers would not appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge's independence,
4 integrity, or impartiality. The factors that a judge should consider when deciding whether 5 to accept reimbursement or a fee waiver for attendance at a particular activity include:

- 6
7 (a) whether the sponsor is an accredited educational institution or bar
8 association rather than a trade association or a for-profit entity;
9 (b) whether the funding comes largely from numerous contributors rather than 10 from a single entity and is earmarked for programs with specific content; 11 (c) whether the content is related or unrelated to the subject matter of 12 litigation pending or impending before the judge, or to matters that are likely to 13 come before the judge;
14 (d) whether the activity is primarily educational rather than recreational, and 15 whether the costs of the event are reasonable and comparable to those associated 16 with similar events sponsored by the judiciary, bar associations, or similar groups;
17 (e) whether information concerning the activity and its funding sources is 18 available upon inquiry;
19 (f) whether the sponsor or source of funding is generally associated with 20 particular parties or interests currently appearing or likely to appear in the judge's
21 court, thus possibly requiring disqualification of the judge under Rule 2.11; 22 (g) whether differing viewpoints are presented; and
23 (h) whether a broad range of judicial and nonjudicial participants are invited, 24 whether a large number of participants are invited, and whether the program is 25 designed specifically for judges.
26

27 RULE 3.15

28 Reporting Requirements

- 29
30 (A) A judge shall publicly report the amount or value of:
- 31
32 (1) compensation received for extrajudicial activities as permitted
33 by Rule 3.12;
34
35 (2) gifts and other things of value as permitted by Rule 3.13(C), 36 unless the value of such items, alone or in the aggregate with other 37 items received from the same source in the same calendar year, does 38 not exceed $[insert amount]; and 39
40 (3) reimbursement of expenses and waiver of fees or charges
41 permitted by Rule 3.14(A), unless the amount of reimbursement or 42 waiver, alone or in the aggregate with other reimbursements or 43 waivers received from the same source in the same calendar year, 44 does not exceed $[insert amount].
45
46 (B) When public reporting is required by paragraph (A), a judge shall 47 report the date, place, and nature of the activity for which the judge received

1 any compensation; the description of any gift, loan, bequest, benefit, or other
2 thing of value accepted; and the source of reimbursement of expenses or 3 waiver or partial waiver of fees or charges.
4

5 (C) The public report required by paragraph (A) shall be made at least 6 annually, except that for reimbursement of expenses and waiver or partial 7 waiver of fees or charges, the report shall be made within thirty days
8 following the conclusion of the event or program.
9

10 (D) Reports made in compliance with this Rule shall be filed as public 11 documents in the office of the clerk of the court on which the judge serves or 12 other office designated by law,* and, when technically feasible, posted by the

CANON 4

A JUDGE OR CANDIDATE FOR JUDICIAL OFFICE SHALL NOT ENGAGE IN POLITICAL OR CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY THAT IS INCONSISTENT WITH THE INDEPENDENCE, INTEGRITY, OR IMPARTIALITY OF THE JUDICIARY.

RULE 4.1

Political and Campaign Activities of Judges and Judicial Candidates in General

(A) Except as permitted by law,* or by Rules 4.2, 4.3, and 4.4, a judge or a judicial candidate* shall not:

- (1) act as a leader in, or hold an office in, a political organization;
- (2) make speeches on behalf of a political organization;
- (3) publicly endorse or oppose a candidate for any public office;
- (4) solicit funds for, pay an assessment to, or make a contribution* to a political organization or a candidate for public office;
- (5) attend or purchase tickets for dinners or other events sponsored by a political organization or a candidate for public office;
- (6) publicly identify himself or herself as a candidate of a political organization;
- (7) seek, accept, or use endorsements from a political organization;
- (8) personally solicit* or accept campaign contributions other than through a campaign committee authorized by Rule 4.4;
- (9) use or permit the use of campaign contributions for the private benefit of the judge, the candidate, or others;
- (10) use court staff, facilities, or other court resources in a campaign for judicial office;
- (11) knowingly,* or with reckless disregard for the truth, make any false or misleading statement;

1 (12) make any statement that would reasonably be expected to
2 affect the outcome or impair the fairness of a matter pending* or 3 impending* in any court; or

4
5 (13) in connection with cases, controversies, or issues that are likely
6 to come before the court, make pledges, promises, or commitments
7 that are inconsistent with the impartial* performance of the 8 adjudicative duties of judicial office.

9
10 (B) A judge or judicial candidate shall take reasonable measures to 11 ensure that other persons do not undertake, on behalf of the judge or judicial 12 candidate, any activities prohibited under paragraph (A).

13

15
16 GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

17
18 [1] Even when subject to public election, a judge plays a role different from that of a 19 legislator or executive branch official. Rather than making decisions based upon the 20 expressed views or preferences of the electorate, a judge makes decisions based upon the 21 law and the facts of every case. Therefore, in furtherance of this interest, judges and 22 judicial candidates must, to the greatest extent possible, be free and appear to be free
23 from political influence and political pressure. This Canon imposes narrowly tailored 24 restrictions upon the political and campaign activities of all judges and judicial 25 candidates, taking into account the various methods of selecting judges.

26
27 [2] When a person becomes a judicial candidate, this Canon becomes applicable to 28 his or her conduct.

29
30 PARTICIPATION IN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

31
32 [3] Public confidence in the independence and impartiality of the judiciary is eroded
33 if judges or judicial candidates are perceived to be subject to political influence. Although 34 judges and judicial candidates may register to vote as members of a political party, they 35 are prohibited by paragraph (A)(1) from assuming leadership roles in political 36 organizations.

37
38 [4] Paragraphs (A)(2) and (A)(3) prohibit judges and judicial candidates from making 39 speeches on behalf of political organizations or publicly endorsing or opposing 40 candidates for public office, respectively, to prevent them from abusing the prestige of 41 judicial office to advance the interests of others. See Rule 1.3. These Rules do not 42 prohibit candidates from campaigning on their own behalf, or from endorsing or 43 opposing candidates for the same judicial office for which they are running. See Rules
44 4.2(B)(2) and 4.2(B)(3).

45
46 [5] Although members of the families of judges and judicial candidates are free to 47 engage in their own political activity, including running for public office, there is no

1 “family exception” to the prohibition in paragraph (A)(3) against a judge or candidate
2 publicly endorsing candidates for public office. A judge or judicial candidate must not 3 become involved in, or publicly associated with, a family member’s political activity or 4 campaign for public office. To avoid public misunderstanding, judges and judicial 5 candidates should take, and should urge members of their families to take, reasonable
6 steps to avoid any implication that they endorse any family member’s candidacy or other 7 political activity.

8
9 [6] Judges and judicial candidates retain the right to participate in the political 10 process as voters in both primary and general elections. For purposes of this Canon, 11 participation in a caucus-type election procedure does not constitute public support for or 12 endorsement of a political organization or candidate, and is not prohibited by paragraphs 13 (A)(2) or (A)(3).

14 STATEMENTS AND COMMENTS MADE DURING A CAMPAIGN FOR JUDICIAL OFFICE

17 [7] Judicial candidates must be scrupulously fair and accurate in all statements made 18 by them and by their campaign committees. Paragraph (A)(11) obligates candidates and 19 their committees to refrain from making statements that are false or misleading, or that 20 omit facts necessary to make the communication considered as a whole not materially 21 misleading.

23 [8] Judicial candidates are sometimes the subject of false, misleading, or unfair
24 allegations made by opposing candidates, third parties, or the media. For example, false
25 or misleading statements might be made regarding the identity, present position,
26 experience, qualifications, or judicial rulings of a candidate. In other situations, false or 27 misleading allegations may be made that bear upon a candidate’s integrity or fitness for 28 judicial office. As long as the candidate does not violate paragraphs (A)(11), (A)(12), or 29 (A)(13), the candidate may make a factually accurate public response. In addition, when 30 an independent third party has made unwarranted attacks on a candidate’s opponent, the 31 candidate may disavow the attacks, and request the third party to cease and desist.

32
33 [9] Subject to paragraph (A)(12), a judicial candidate is permitted to respond directly 34 to false, misleading, or unfair allegations made against him or her during a campaign,
35 although it is preferable for someone else to respond if the allegations relate to a pending 36 case.

38 [10] Paragraph (A)(12) prohibits judicial candidates from making comments that 39 might impair the fairness of pending or impending judicial proceedings. This provision 40 does not restrict arguments or statements to the court or jury by a lawyer who is a judicial 41 candidate, or rulings, statements, or instructions by a judge that may appropriately affect 42 the outcome of a matter.

43
44 PLEDGES, PROMISES, OR COMMITMENTS INCONSISTENT WITH IMPARTIAL PERFORMANCE
45 OF THE ADJUDICATIVE DUTIES OF JUDICIAL OFFICE

46
47 [11] The role of a judge is different from that of a legislator or executive branch
48 official, even when the judge is subject to public election. Campaigns for judicial office

1 must be conducted differently from campaigns for other offices. The narrowly drafted
2 restrictions upon political and campaign activities of judicial candidates provided in
3 Canon 4 allow candidates to conduct campaigns that provide voters with sufficient
4 information to permit them to distinguish between candidates and make informed
5 electoral choices.

6
7 [12] Paragraph (A)(13) makes applicable to both judges and judicial candidates the 8 prohibition that applies to judges in Rule 2.10(B), relating to pledges, promises, or 9 commitments that are inconsistent with the impartial performance of the adjudicative
10 duties of judicial office.

12 [13] The making of a pledge, promise, or commitment is not dependent upon, or 13 limited to, the use of any specific words or phrases; instead, the totality of the statement
14 must be examined to determine if a reasonable person would believe that the candidate
15 for judicial office has specifically undertaken to reach a particular result. Pledges, 16 promises, or commitments must be contrasted with statements or announcements of 17 personal views on legal, political, or other issues, which are not prohibited. When making
18 such statements, a judge should acknowledge the overarching judicial obligation to apply
19 and uphold the law, without regard to his or her personal views.

21 [14] A judicial candidate may make campaign promises related to judicial 22 organization, administration, and court management, such as a promise to dispose of a 23 backlog of cases, start court sessions on time, or avoid favoritism in appointments and 24 hiring. A candidate may also pledge to take action outside the courtroom, such as 25 working toward an improved jury selection system, or advocating for more funds to 26 improve the physical plant and amenities of the courthouse.

27
28 [15] Judicial candidates may receive questionnaires or requests for interviews from the 29 media and from issue advocacy or other community organizations that seek to learn their 30 views on disputed or controversial legal or political issues. Paragraph (A)(13) does not 31 specifically address judicial responses to such inquiries. Depending upon the wording and 32 format of such questionnaires, candidates' responses might be viewed as pledges, 33 promises, or commitments to perform the adjudicative duties of office other than in an 34 impartial way. To avoid violating paragraph (A)(13), therefore, candidates who respond
35 to media and other inquiries should also give assurances that they will keep an open mind
36 and will carry out their adjudicative duties faithfully and impartially if elected.
37 Candidates who do not respond may state their reasons for not responding, such as the 38 danger that answering might be perceived by a reasonable person as undermining a 39 successful candidate's independence or impartiality, or that it might lead to frequent
40 disqualification. See Rule 2.11.

1
2 RULE 4.2

3 Political and Campaign Activities of Judicial Candidates in Public
4 Elections

5
6 (A) A judicial candidate* in a partisan, nonpartisan, or retention public 7 election* shall:

8
9 (1) act at all times in a manner consistent with the independence,*
10 integrity,* and impartiality* of the judiciary;

11
12 (2) comply with all applicable election, election campaign, and 13 election campaign fund-raising laws and regulations of this 14 jurisdiction;

15
16 (3) review and approve the content of all campaign statements and 17 materials produced by the candidate or his or her campaign
18 committee, as authorized by Rule 4.4, before their dissemination; and

19
20 (4) take reasonable measures to ensure that other persons do not 21 undertake on behalf of the candidate activities, other than those 22 described in Rule 4.4, that the candidate is prohibited from doing by
23 Rule 4.1.

24
25 (B) A candidate for elective judicial office may, unless prohibited by law,*
26 and not earlier than [insert amount of time] before the first applicable
27 primary election, caucus, or general or retention election:

28
29 (1) establish a campaign committee pursuant to the provisions of 30 Rule 4.4;

31
32 (2) speak on behalf of his or her candidacy through any medium,
33 including but not limited to advertisements, websites, or other
34 campaign literature;

35
36 (3) publicly endorse or oppose candidates for the same judicial 37 office for which he or she is running;

38
39 (4) attend or purchase tickets for dinners or other events
40 sponsored by a political organization* or a candidate for public office;

41
42 (5) seek, accept, or use endorsements from any person or 43 organization other than a partisan political organization; and

45 (6) contribute to a political organization or candidate for public
46 office, but not more than $[insert amount] to any one organization or 47 candidate.

1
2 (C) A judicial candidate in a partisan public election may, unless
3 prohibited by law, and not earlier than [insert amount of time] before the 4 first applicable primary election, caucus, or general election:

5
6 (1) identify himself or herself as a candidate of a political 7 organization; and

8
9 (2) seek, accept, and use endorsements of a political organization.

10

12
13 [1] Paragraphs (B) and (C) permit judicial candidates in public elections to engage in 14 some political and campaign activities otherwise prohibited by Rule 4.1. Candidates may 15 not engage in these activities earlier than [insert amount of time] before the first 16 applicable electoral event, such as a caucus or a primary election.

17
18 [2] Despite paragraphs (B) and (C), judicial candidates for public election remain
19 subject to many of the provisions of Rule 4.1. For example, a candidate continues to be 20 prohibited from soliciting funds for a political organization, knowingly making false or 21 misleading statements during a campaign, or making certain promises, pledges, or 22 commitments related to future adjudicative duties. See Rule 4.1(A), paragraphs (4), (11), 23 and (13).

24
25 [3] In partisan public elections for judicial office, a candidate may be nominated by,
26 affiliated with, or otherwise publicly identified or associated with a political organization,
27 including a political party. This relationship may be maintained throughout the period of 28 the public campaign, and may include use of political party or similar designations on 29 campaign literature and on the ballot.

30
31 [4] In nonpartisan public elections or retention elections, paragraph (B)(5) prohibits a 32 candidate from seeking, accepting, or using nominations or endorsements from a partisan 33 political organization.

34
35 [5] Judicial candidates are permitted to attend or purchase tickets for dinners and 36 other events sponsored by political organizations.

37
38 [6] For purposes of paragraph (B)(3), candidates are considered to be running for the 39 same judicial office if they are competing for a single judgeship or if several judgeships
40 on the same court are to be filled as a result of the election. In endorsing or opposing 41 another candidate for a position on the same court, a judicial candidate must abide by the 42 same rules governing campaign conduct and speech as apply to the candidate's own 43 campaign.

45 [7] Although judicial candidates in nonpartisan public elections are prohibited from 46 running on a ticket or slate associated with a political organization, they may group
47 themselves into slates or other alliances to conduct their campaigns more effectively.

1 Candidates who have grouped themselves together are considered to be running for the 2 same judicial office if they satisfy the conditions described in Comment [6].
3

4 RULE 4.3

5 Activities of Candidates for Appointive Judicial Office

6
7 A candidate for appointment to judicial office may:

8
9 (A) communicate with the appointing or confirming authority, including 10 any selection, screening, or nominating commission or similar agency; and

11
12 (B) seek endorsements for the appointment from any person or 13 organization other than a partisan political organization.
15

17
18 [1] When seeking support or endorsement, or when communicating directly with an 19 appointing or confirming authority, a candidate for appointive judicial office must not 20 make any pledges, promises, or commitments that are inconsistent with the impartial 21 performance of the adjudicative duties of the office. See Rule 4.1(A)(13).
22

23 RULE 4.4

24 Campaign Committees

25
26 (A) A judicial candidate* subject to public election* may establish a 27 campaign committee to manage and conduct a campaign for the candidate, 28 subject to the provisions of this Code. The candidate is responsible for 29 ensuring that his or her campaign committee complies with applicable
30 provisions of this Code and other applicable law.*

31
32 (B) A judicial candidate subject to public election shall direct his or her 33 campaign committee:

34
35 (1) to solicit and accept only such campaign contributions* as are 36 reasonable, in any event not to exceed, in the aggregate,* $[insert 37 amount] from any individual or $[insert amount] from any entity or 38 organization;

40 (2) not to solicit or accept contributions for a candidate's current 41 campaign more than [insert amount of time] before the applicable
42 primary election, caucus, or general or retention election, nor more 43 than [insert number] days after the last election in which the 44 candidate participated; and

45
46 (3) to comply with all applicable statutory requirements for 47 disclosure and divestiture of campaign contributions, and to file with

1 [name of appropriate regulatory authority] a report stating the name,
2 address, occupation, and employer of each person who has made
3 campaign contributions to the committee in an aggregate value
4 exceeding $[insert amount]. The report must be filed within [insert
5 number] days following an election, or within such other period as is 6 provided by law.
7

9
10 [1] Judicial candidates are prohibited from personally soliciting campaign
11 contributions or personally accepting campaign contributions. See Rule 4.1(A)(8). This 12 Rule recognizes that in many jurisdictions, judicial candidates must raise campaign funds
13 to support their candidacies, and permits candidates, other than candidates for appointive
14 judicial office, to establish campaign committees to solicit and accept reasonable 15 financial contributions or in-kind contributions.
16

17 [2] Campaign committees may solicit and accept campaign contributions, manage the 18 expenditure of campaign funds, and generally conduct campaigns. Candidates are 19 responsible for compliance with the requirements of election law and other applicable
20 law, and for the activities of their campaign committees.
21

22 [3] At the start of a campaign, the candidate must instruct the campaign committee to 23 solicit or accept only such contributions as are reasonable in amount, appropriate under 24 the circumstances, and in conformity with applicable law. Although lawyers and others 25 who might appear before a successful candidate for judicial office are permitted to make 26 campaign contributions, the candidate should instruct his or her campaign committee to 27 be especially cautious in connection with such contributions, so they do not create 28 grounds for disqualification if the candidate is elected to judicial office. See Rule 2.11.

30 RULE 4.5

31 Activities of Judges Who Become Candidates for Nonjudicial Office

32
33 (A) Upon becoming a candidate for a nonjudicial elective office, a judge
34 shall resign from judicial office, unless permitted by law* to continue to hold 35 judicial office.

37 (B) Upon becoming a candidate for a nonjudicial appointive office, a 38 judge is not required to resign from judicial office, provided that the judge
39 complies with the other provisions of this Code.
40

42
43 [1] In campaigns for nonjudicial elective public office, candidates may make pledges,
44 promises, or commitments related to positions they would take and ways they would act
45 if elected to office. Although appropriate in nonjudicial campaigns, this manner of 46 campaigning is inconsistent with the role of a judge, who must remain fair and impartial 47 to all who come before him or her. The potential for misuse of the judicial office, and the

1 political promises that the judge would be compelled to make in the course of 2 campaigning for nonjudicial elective office, together dictate that a judge who wishes to 3 run for such an office must resign upon becoming a candidate.

4

5 [2] The “resign to run” rule set forth in paragraph (A) ensures that a judge cannot use
6 the judicial office to promote his or her candidacy, and prevents post-campaign
7 retaliation from the judge in the event the judge is defeated in the election. When a judge
8 is seeking appointive nonjudicial office, however, the dangers are not sufficient to 9 warrant imposing the “resign to run” rule.
